

Airplane & Cruise Basics

Start here, then add your destination list.

Documents & carry-on

- ☐ Required travel documents for your itinerary
- ☐ Tickets, confirmations and insurance details
- ☐ Medications and essential personal items
- ☐ Phone, charging cable and compatible power bank
- ☐ Glasses, contact supplies and a change of clothes

Comfort & organization

- ☐ Travel pillow, eye mask and earplugs
- ☐ Packing cubes and a laundry bag
- ☐ Toiletries and leak-resistant containers
- ☐ Comfortable shoes and a light layer
- ☐ Reusable water bottle (empty before screening)

Cruise extras

- ☐ Cruise check-in documents and luggage tags
- ☐ Day bag for embarkation and excursions
- ☐ Swimwear and an evening outfit
- ☐ Sun hat, sunglasses and sunscreen
- ☐ Check your cruise line's prohibited-items list

Check airline baggage, battery and liquid rules before departure. Keep essential medication and documents in your carry-on. Ship policies vary; do not assume adapters or electrical accessories are permitted.

Mediterranean

For city walks, coastal stops and cruise days.

Clothing & footwear

- ☐ Comfortable walking shoes
- ☐ Breathable outfits matched to the season
- ☐ Light layer for cooler evenings
- ☐ Modest clothing or a cover-up for religious sites
- ☐ Swimwear if your itinerary includes beach time

Day-trip essentials

- ☐ Secure day bag and reusable water bottle
- ☐ Sun hat, sunglasses and sunscreen
- ☐ Phone, camera and charging supplies
- ☐ Travel adapter matched to every country visited
- ☐ Compact umbrella or rain jacket

Before you go

- ☐ Add Airplane & Cruise Basics from page 1
- ☐ Check forecasts for each destination
- ☐ Review dress codes and excursion requirements
- ☐ Confirm device voltage and plug compatibility
- ☐ Pack only what fits your baggage allowance

A plug adapter changes the plug connection; it does not necessarily convert voltage. Check the exact model and each device before use. Mediterranean weather differs by country and season.

Caribbean

For beach days, island exploring and warm weather.

Clothing & footwear

- ☐ Lightweight clothing and an evening outfit
- ☐ Swimwear and a beach cover-up
- ☐ Comfortable walking shoes and sandals
- ☐ Light layer for air-conditioned spaces
- ☐ Hat and sunglasses

Beach & day-trip bag

- ☐ Sunscreen appropriate for your destination
- ☐ Waterproof phone pouch that fits your device
- ☐ Reusable water bottle
- ☐ Small beach bag and optional quick-dry towel
- ☐ Cooling fan and charging cable

- ☐ Add Airplane & Cruise Basics from page 1
- ☐ Check rain forecasts and excursion requirements
- ☐ Confirm what towels your hotel or ship provides
- ☐ Test a phone pouch before placing a device inside
- ☐ Review local rules and cruise-line restrictions

Waterproof products have limits: follow the manufacturer's instructions and test the pouch before each use. Pack for your planned activities and forecast, rather than buying every item listed.

Alaska

For changing weather, scenic cruising and excursions.

Layers & footwear

- ☐ Base layers and a warm midlayer
- ☐ Waterproof rain jacket with a hood
- ☐ Comfortable water-resistant walking shoes
- ☐ Warm socks, hat and gloves
- ☐ Everyday clothes and an evening outfit

Excursion bag

- ☐ Compact binoculars for scenic viewing
- ☐ Daypack and reusable water bottle
- ☐ Phone, camera and charging supplies
- ☐ Sunglasses and sunscreen
- ☐ Personal essentials for your planned outing

- ☐ Add Airplane & Cruise Basics from page 1
- ☐ Check forecasts close to departure
- ☐ Confirm excursion clothing and footwear needs
- ☐ Leave room for layers in your daypack
- ☐ Review baggage and cruise-line restrictions

Alaska conditions vary by month and port. Layer for the forecast and the activities you booked; heavy winter clothing is not necessary for every itinerary.
